

For Immediate Release

For information contact:

Denise de Ville, ddeville@unitedamericanbank.com 650-579-1527

United American Bank Welcomes Robert Mazza as Senior Vice President

San Mateo, CA – May 1, 2007. United American Bank (OTCBB: UABK), announced Robert Mazza joined the Bank as Senior Vice President Construction Lending. Mazza's field of expertise in construction lending includes residential subdivisions and commercial development from the North Bay to San Jose. Formerly, Mazza served as a Senior Real Estate Officer and Senior Vice President of Commercial Lending for Service 1st Bank in Tracy, and Vice President of Construction Lending for Cupertino National Bank in Cupertino.

Mazza will lead the South Bay Regional Office's Construction Lending Division. "Construction loans have been a focus of the Bank since its inception, and I intend to augment the Bank's stellar performing Construction Division and bring another dimension to it," said Mazza.

Mazza is a graduate of Santa Clara University. He and his wife Gail have three grown children. His hobby is Corvettes and has a second home in Bowling Green, Kentucky.

###

About United American Bank

United American Bank is a full-service commercial bank headquartered in San Mateo, California. Rated as a five star banking institution by Bauer Financial, Inc., the Bank is dedicated to providing superior banking and financial services for those who prefer a high level of personalized client service. For more information, visit United American Bank on the web at www.unitedamericanbank.com or call 650-579-1500.

Headquarters
101 South Ellsworth Avenue
San Mateo, California 94401
T: 650.579.1500
F: 650.579.1501

www.unitedamericanbank.com

Member FDIC